Dear Parents and Carers,

Week commencing: Monday 29th April 2024

NEWSLETTER 28 BOTH SCHOOLS

Staffing

Today is Mr Grantham's final day before he moves on to new adventures, outside teaching. He has spent six years at Holton le Clay and we shall miss him for a multitude of reasons; not least his, now legendary, bingo calling! We wish Mr Grantham every success in his new career and will hold him to his promise that he will come back and visit!

PGL

A huge thank you to our staff taking Y5 on their PGL trip. Without the time and commitment of Mr Grantham, Mrs Carr and Mrs Hooley we wouldn't have made it! Thank you so much. Also, a huge clap on the back for the Y5's who attended; their behaviour was outstanding and the children were a credit to themselves and the school. Overall, the trip was a massive success; well done to everyone involved!

Early May Bank Holiday

Parents – please note that Monday 6th May is a Bank Holiday and children will not be attending school.

REMINDERS

Nut Free School

This is a reminder that we are a nut free school so can you please take care when preparing packed lunches. We have to be very careful as we do have children and staff with nut allergies.

Reading for Pleasure

As part of our continued Reading for Pleasure journey, we are looking to select four reading ambassadors at the infant school (year 1 and year 2). The children are aware of this and know what the role entails. We are looking for children who have a passion for reading and can 'blether' about books, making recommendations to their peers and help further develop our reading for pleasure ethos within school. The reading ambassadors will initially meet every half term during school time. All the children have been given a small invitation asking them to design a poster that encourages their peers to read their favourite book. The poster is to be given to their class teacher by Thursday 9th May. We will select four posters and allocate a reading ambassador badge to the winners.

FUTURE DATES:

Primary Assessments: future dates for parents 23-24

- Phonics Screening Check: Week commencing Monday 10 June 2024
- Key Stage One SATs Tests: It is recommended that the key stage 1 tests (optional) are administered during May 2024. If your child is in Year 2, please do not book holidays over this period unless during May half term, 25th May 2024 to 2nd June 2024
